vHealth, a telemedicine service by Aetna Thailand, wins Best Product Innovation Award 2020

Bangkok, September 1, 2020: vHealth, a telemedicine application by Aetna Services (Thailand) wins the ‘Business+ Best Product Innovation Award 2020’, in the Medical Service category. The Awards comprised 10 categories recognising the industry’s top companies for outstanding innovative products and services as voted by thousands of consumers across the country.

“Winning the Best Product Innovation Award is a result of the dedication and commitment of our talented team who have worked hard to rethink the way healthcare is delivered, increasing convenience while reducing the risk of transmission and lowering cost for patients.

vHealth is the only platform from the health insurance sector selected to receive this prestigious award and we are excited about this platform’s future in the region”, said Mr. Damian J. Delaney, Managing Director of Aetna Health Insurance (Thailand) Public Company Limited.

The winners of the Awards, one of the most recognised consumer-centric awards in Thailand, organised by Business+ magazine and the College of Science Research and Innovation of Mahidol University, were announced on 25 August 2020 at C asean Ratchada, Bangkok.
